
Acknowledgments

We have been overwhelmed by the generosity of the many people who offered us assistance in compiling both the text and the illustrations for Remembering Judson House. The biggest thanks are due to the former Judson House residents who took time to write down their memories and share them with us. There would not have been a book without them.

In addition, we want to acknowledge the following by name, listed in alphabetical order:

- Shirley Chetter, who scanned the photos and designed the book;
- Nye Ffarrabas, who entrusted us with original photos from her collection;
- Alice Garrard, Grace Goodman, Abigail Hastings, and Irene Tichenor, who researched and wrote about various aspects of Judson House history;
- Robert E. Harvey, great-grandson of Eleanor Campbell, the founder of the Judson Health Center, who provided us with invaluable information on Dr. Campbell's life;
- Jon Hendricks, who lent us original materials relating to the Judson Gallery in the 1960s;
- Peter Laarman and the Board of Judson Memorial Church, who provided financial assistance to bring the book to publication;
- Dana Martin, Director of the Library, American Baptist Historical Society, Rochester, New York, who went far beyond professional courtesy to give us access to old Baptist City Society archives and ended up doing some of the research himself;

- Barbara Moore, who gave us permission to use photographs by the late Peter Moore;
- Claes Oldenburg, for loaning us copies of the magazine Exodus;
- Michael Rivera, current director of the Judson Health Center, who let us borrow files and photos from the Center's early archives;
- Bud Scott, for allowing us to reprint illustrations from Exodus.
